

Release of Liability and Assumption of Risk Waiver Form for events run by Kristin Repsher Photography

By completing and signing this contract you acknowledge that you agree to and understand the terms and conditions herein. You are waiving certain legal rights, including the right to sue Kristin Repsher Photography, its organisers and members. Please read this contract carefully.

I, the participant, acknowledge that participation in any photographic event or any other outdoor activity organised by Kristin Repsher Photography carries with it inherent risks including, but not limited to, the risk of injury or death. And I, the participant, freely accept and fully assume all such risk(s).

It is the responsibility of each participant of a trip to familiarise themselves with the risks of the activity, to weigh those risks against the advantages, and to decide whether or not to participate. The organisers cannot and will not assume liability in respect of any of these risks, dangers, hazards and liabilities. Participants further acknowledge that it is their responsibility to ensure that they carry adequate medical, extended health, dental and accident insurance coverage, as well as adequate protection for personal possessions that covers high-value items such as cameras and lenses. It is the participant's individual responsibility to verify that they are in good health and are physically capable of carrying out the activity.

I am aware that the organisers are not responsible for my safety while participating in such activity. I am aware that other participants are not responsible for my safety.

I acknowledge that Kristin Repsher Photography is not responsible for providing transportation to and from the activity location and that I may have to make my own private arrangements for my transportation. If I participate in carpooling with other participants in the particular event, then I do so entirely at my own risk and without any right to claim against the Kristin Repsher Photography for any loss, damages, or personal injury whatsoever I may suffer. I agree to assume all of the risks and responsibilities associated with my transportation to and from the activity location.

While Kristin Repsher Photography is the organiser of events, the fact that their activities are outdoors means that they cannot be expected to control every aspect of the event. Everyone is responsible for their own actions during the course of an event.

In consideration of being allowed to participate, individuals release Kristin Repsher Photography and its organisers all liability in respect of any personal injury suffered, any damage or loss of personal property, which may arise out of participation in a photography-related activity.

I am of the full age of 18 years.
